Jammu 1 April : The Vice Chancellor of Central University of Jammu Prof. Ashok Aima, has been appointed as member of prestigious Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR) by Shri C. Rajasekhar, Director General, ICCR, New Delhi.
While reconstituting its General Assembly and General Body the ICCR on Thursday, the Director ICCR Prof Rajeshsekhar has conveyed his decision of appointing Prof. Ashok Aima as member ICCR.

The Vice Chancellor Prof. Ashok Aima has accepted the offer of appointment and expressed his gratitude and regards to Shri C. Rajasekhar for this important assignment.

The Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR) was founded in 1950 by Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, independent India's first Education Minister. Its objectives are to actively participate in the formulation and implementation of policies and programmes pertaining to India's external cultural relations; to foster and strengthen cultural relations and mutual understanding between India and other countries; to promote cultural exchanges with other countries and people; and to develop relations with nations.

This is a great privilege and honour for the people of Jammu that person of Jammu has got an opportunity to be as member of ICCR, New Delhi. All the faculty and staff memebrs of CUJ have congratulate Prof. Ashok Aima for this presitigious assignment.