The meeting of the Directorate discussed regarding sports participation as follows:

6th Meeting held on 16-12-2021 at 4.30 PM

Agenda: To discuss about the participation of university students in North Zone Inter University Sports Events

Resolved: The committee has thoroughly discussed about the agenda and it has unanimously decided not to participate in the forthcoming Sports events i.e is to be held in December 2021 and January 2022 at various venues based on the following reasons;

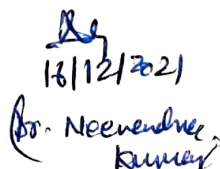

- The committee has decided to wait for the new batch of students to join the university to give fare selection of team and give equal opportunity of all the students in selection of teams before participation in any such events.
- The committee has further decided to organise an intra university sports meet in the month of March 2022 to select the talented sports persons in different events for further participation in any such events in future.
- Moreover, as per the latest guidelines issued by the Ministry of Education, Government of Indian and CUJ the committee has serious perused the same and keeping in mind the safety of the students and the faculties from the spreading of Omicron Corona Variant.
- Along with the above reasons and due to short notice of the event it is not feasible for the Directorate of Sports Education to further pursue the matter.
